Sun's high, so am I. Just another day spent wondering why and how, we get out of town. High strung and strung out, got a rainy day saved so I'm checking out, oh yeah. Cuz when you don't have anything, then you don't have nothing to lose. When you don't have anything then you don't have nothing to lose.

Moon tide, got the stars outside, its a matter of time to rise and shine oh yeah. But I won't survive with a 9 to 5 want to play till 2 and sleep till noon, oh yeah. So, who cares what its like outside, got a new tattoo and a bottle of wine, oh yeah. Because today is the day I get to say I'm walking away, oh yeah. Cuz when you don't have anything then you don't have nothing to lose. When you don't have anything then you don't have nothing to lose.

Let's Go! Maybe someday I'll find that magical place where I belong. Maybe I'm wrong, I've waited way too long because its gone, gone, gone. Whoa whoa whoa

Skies blue, I was too, cuz I wish I was high with you right now, but I'm so far away. We could smoke a bowl together then maybe sell our souls forever I'll do whatever as long as I'm with you. Cuz when you don't have anything then you don't have nothing to lose. When you don't have anything then you don't have nothing to lose. When you don't have anything then you don't have nothing to lose.
