the government wants me dead because i smoke sensei its not a war anymore but its becoming an atrocity a million different people, the truth finally comes we're all pounding the same beat on different drums to the government who lies to her children "help us" rebellious but theres another side to the problem here oh dear, now your kids are living in fear we scream and pray you hear everybody's running and everybody's coming and everybody's got something to say get caught with weed again you'll be back on the street is that the price we must pay?

i want to fly away land where I'm set to stay i wanna get high today
but lately I'm too afraid

i got two pounds of crippy weed I'm rollin' through st. cloud driving down 192
got the reggae music cranked loud everybody's lookin for the ganja but they don't gotta go up to oranje life is a big fat spliff take a big fat whiff of this chronic shit

no time to rise up against them rude boy's been judged by the system all i can do is resist them I'm tired of being the victim more dead from the police violence you animals

adds more guilt to your conscience this voice that you cannot silence I'm not down with the crackrock i just smoke pot and i don't want to be fucked with people if you're down with the herbal its time to get verbal or this is what your gonna be stuck with

and everybody's got something to say
get caught with weed again you'll be back on the street
again

land when I'm set to stay
i wanna get high today

driving down 192
got the reggae music cranked loud everybody's puffin on my crop whether a doctor or a lawyer or a cop if life is a big fat spliff

the voice that you cannot silence
