

Dreaming, The "Alone"

Visit "Alone" on MotoLyrics.com

I know that you're lonely
I can see it written in your eyes
Behind your crooked smile
Lives a fear you can no longer hide
Up in your ivory tower
You locked the door and threw away the key
Now you feel forgotten thinking that the worlds your enemy

And you are not alone
You are not alone

You made your life a fortress
Built a mote around your broken heart
But those walls are crumbling
The isolation tearing you apart

And you are not alone
You are not alone
