I am the life
That you've forgotten
I am the future
That you've left behind
I am the truth
You try to silence
I am everything about you that's a lie

I'll never let myself become like you
I'll never let myself become like you
I'll tear myself in two before
I become what I abhor
Never let myself become like you

I am the door
You're afraid to open
You are the question
That plagues my mind
I am the stone
That grows around you
You're the calm within the center of the eye

I'll never let myself become like you
I will never let myself become like you
I'll tear myself in two before
I become what I abhor
Never let myself become like you

There's no one to kiss you goodnight
There's no one to kiss you goodnight

No one to cry for
No one to die for
No one to kiss you goodnight

You are the life
That I've forgotten
You are the future that I've left behind

I'll never let myself become like you
I will never let myself become like you

I'll tear myself in two before
I become what I abhor
Never let myself become like you
