You are you are the thing I need
The one desire consuming me
You take me higher, I'm on my knees
You are you are the thing I need
You are the thing I need

You are the thing I need
You are you are the thing I love

You are you are the air I breathe
My one waking thought you haunt my dreams
You're both the cure and my disease
You are you are the thing I need
You are the thing I need

You are you are the thing I love
You are the thing I need
You are you are the thing I love
You are the thing I need
You are you are the thing I love

I need you more, more than I want you
And I want you more than anything on this earth
And I need you more than I want you
And I want you more than anything on this earth

You are you are the drug I crave
And you burn like fire through my veins
You cool my fever you soothe my pain
You are you are the thing I need

You are you are the thing I love
You are the thing I need
You are you are the thing I love
You are the thing I need
You are you are
(More than I want you)
You are you are
You are the thing I need
You are you are the thing I love
You are you are

You are the thing I need
You are you are
(More than I want you)
You are you are
You are The thing I need
You are the one thing I love
(The one thing I need)
