"Lay Me Down"

What was I looking for
Crawling in a darkened corridor
What was it that I should find
Hiding in the corners of my mind

Where in my heart
Where in this life
Where in this world
Is the memory

Of all I ever was
Of all I'll ever be
The questions the same
The answers come without a name

Of all I ever was
All I'll ever be
The questions remain
I ask them again and again and again

As I lay me down
As I lay me down
As I lay me down
Lay me down
As I lay me down
As I lay me down
As I lay me down
Lay me down

Where in my heart
Where in this life
Where in this world

Good night
Sleep tight
