

Supreme Beings Of Leisure "Oneness"

Visit "Oneness" on MotoLyrics.com

Think of it as a creative force, not as a mystery
Not as something you look upward to or outward to
But something you look inside yourself

Tied to all you believe
Drifting far from all you receive
Let your mind fall away
Let your black and white be grey

When you close your eyes and open the window
Let go of the lies and look at your shadow
When you close your eyes and open the window
Let go of the lies and look at your shadow

Close your eyes
You can see further
Close your eyes (high frequency)
You can see further

Close your eyes
Close your eyes
