It's never been,
it's never been as quiet as you seem.
The truth is,
the truth is I don't think I like it.
But I can't change it while I'm here.

I'm innocent,
I'm innocent until you prove likewise.
I hint at it,
a glint in your eyes drawn to mine.
but I can't change it while I'm here,
why would I change it when you're near.

I'm a shadow,
at least a shadow disappears.

The fingers point,
the fingers point right between my eyes.
I duck and weave,
I duck and weave to get away from these things,
but your ears are just used for listening,
but I can't change it while I'm here,
why would I change it when you're near.

I'm a shadow,
at least a shadow disappears.

Take a look here on the stage,
you're thought up hero runs again.

I'm a shadow,
at least a shadow disappears.
