can see inside you
Can you become everything
Change the way you live your life
Or is it gonna be
The same
Just another day
Another town
And everything's coming down

I've been down that path before
Trying to change my life
It's just so fucking hard
To drop it all and walk away

I'm realizing day after day
The longer this progresses
The bigger my pain becomes
The longer the road i walk does
I am beginning to see
I'm self destructing

BREAK!

The walls coming down
The world standing still
As I walk
Unscathed
I'm bringing my pain
To the party
Drowning it into my veins
With heroine
Numbing the pain
