I'm just a little girl from arizona caught up in this big huge world don't know which direction to go
i'm just a little girl from arizona cuaght up in this big huge world all these faces are nameless but my face is numbered, dated, and used!

sitting quietly in a corner don't want to wander, so lost all the things mommy warned me of all the things i could have worn all the things i should have said racing through my head

caught up in this big huge world
don't know which direction to go
i'm just a little girl from arizona
caught up in this big huge world
but my face is numbered, date, and used!

daddy made me a map as big as it could get he said "you can go anywhere. ya, anywhere you want.
you'll make it good someday." i'm so confused, i'm so confused

finally, when i'm lost i begin to feel safe
i'm lost in your arms now

i've begun to feel safe
show me the way now carry me home now my soul's savior divine!

caught up in this big huge world
but my face is numbered, dated, and used!
