I need a little time alone with myself
Just to put my thoughts together and to clear my head Seems I've come to a fork in the road, but where will I turn
No matter where I go I know there's something I can learn

Falling in love is ever so sweet
When two become one, two people like you and me
Falling in love is ever so strong
Some say it's a miracle for two people like us to fall in love

No, there's nothing in the world that feels good like this
Not the special way that two people in love do
And I'm not afraid to say it's happening now Ever since that first hello I knew I'd never let you go

Falling in love is ever so sweet
When two become one, two people like you and me
Falling in love is ever so strong
Some say it's a miracle for two people like us to fall in love

It's something that's beautiful
Could knock a strong man down to his knees Yes, I know love is something that everyone understands
No matter who or where you are, love it comes from the heart

Falling in love is ever so sweet
When two become one, two people like you and me
Falling in love is ever so strong
Some say it's a miracle for two people like us to fall in love

Falling in love is ever so sweet
We could be one, start a family, you and me
Fall in love is ever so strong
Some say it's a miracle for two people like us

Falling in love is ever so sweet
We could be one, start a family, you and me
Fall in love is ever so strong
Some say it's a miracle for two people like us

Falling in love
Fall in love is ever so strong
Some say it's a miracle for two people like us
Falling in love
