In your life you seem to have it all,
You seem to have control
But deep within your soul,
You're losing it
You never took the time,
Assume that you're to blame
You think that you're insane,
Won't you spare me

Chorus:

I know the breakdown
Everything is gonna shake now someday
I know the breakdown
Tell me again am I awake now, maybe

You can find the reason that no one else is living this way
Yeah, your lies, your world is built around
Two faces in a clown
The voice in your head think there's four pawns down
Well, in this unity, faith has found the need
You better check yourself before you check out

Chorus

If you find yourself, then you might believe
Then within yourself you just might conceive

Chorus

You can find the reason that
(you can find the reason that)
No one else is living this way
(you can find the reason that way)
