"Between Myself"

The voices around
We're convincing me that nothing
Seems to change in my sick life
But the cold in my dead mind
Took me into a deeper dream
And a stream of cold air
Rushed right through my chest

So I saw that
It's hard to decide
Between myself (myself) and your pride

I hope I can take me away from your lies
I have to get you out of my mind
My soul's deceased and
My heart's abused like
Pain was covering me
Pain is covering me

I want no more failures in my life
I want to deny you
I want to destroy everything that you are
I just don't want to please you forever
