I'm waitin' for something new
That soon will show me the truth
I'm searching out my mind
A way to stop me going blind
My life is in a hole
'Cause I can't stop myself to fall
And then sometimes I see the light
Appears a feeling that makes me fight

Now I'm lost in my mind
My time running away from me
Somebody wants me to go blind
But finds a way to set me free
Now I'm lost in my mind
My time running away from me
Somebody wants me to go blind
But finds a way to set me free
So, what do I do in the dust?
Can't I roll this cold dice?
If I have to pay my feelings
Please tell me: what is the price?
So, what do I do in the dust?
Can't I roll this cold dice?
If I have to pay my feelings
Please tell me: what is the price?

Everything I feel is pain
And inside I'm so ashamed
Everything around me is sad
In this way, I prefer the death
I feel one foot in the grave
But if I fall, I die like a brave
I can't finish and pass this test
But, after all, I did my best

Now I'm lost in my mind
My time running away from me
Somebody wants me to go blind
But finds a way to set me free
Now I'm lost in my mind
My time running away from me

Somebody wants me to go blind
But finds a way to set me free
So, what do I do in the dust?
Can't I roll this cold dice?
If I have to pay my feelings
Please tell me: what is the price?
So, what do I do in the dust?
Can't I roll this cold dice?
If I have to pay my feelings
Please tell me: what is the price?

Now I'm lost in my mind
My time running away from me
Somebody wants me to go blind
But finds a way to set me free
Now I'm lost in my mind
My time running away from me
Somebody wants me to go blind
But finds a way to set me free
So, what do I do in the dust?
Can't I roll this cold dice?
If I have to pay my feelings
Please tell me: what is the price?
So, what do I do in the dust?
Can't I roll this cold dice?
If I have to pay my feelings
Please tell me: what is the price?
