Finding myself with a fake ID
A sudden fall that was buried in me
Like a self made spy in a blink of an eye
Seeking the present for a time to die
Weak to fight
My sight gets tight
A final call 'til the curtain fall
A final test to make a sense of it all
A desperate try with my last blow
Preaching the forces from below

And now (and now)
In my life (in my life)
My mind (my mind)
Shouts

The warning came from no one but yourself
Behold your thoughts
Just keep in stealth
Control yourself
We're living faster
Blast out now
Just give them something

Through the bow with a different MO
Ignite your eyes
Is time to arise
Like a freeze in the spine
Forcing them to resign
Stabbing slow
To show them your fine
Hard to believe what your brain can achieve
Now the curtain fell
We are burning the town
Til they frown
They are taking the crown
And the blame is going down

The warning came from no one but yourself
Behold your thoughts
Just keep in stealth

Control yourself
We're living faster
Blast out now
Just give them something
New

Can't hold'em 'til the end, I fear them day and night
A shadow to my heritage
For life
The shadows fall

The warning came from no one but yourself
Behold your thoughts
Just keep in stealth
Control yourself
We're living faster
Blast out now
Just give them something
New
