System's dominated by the killer machines
Invisible enemies controlling our life scenes
Crowded cities are wiped away
Damage happens
People die but souls stay

No need to pull the trigger
The menace came with a blast
Thrilled by the flare
They became a strong dust in the air

A spreader retaining the destruction within Annihilating all the human race
Come in
To a blasting charge
A fatal crash
A terrible blaze
A poisonous flash

Life torn down around it
Vanquished, cursed, carried away
By the red sunlight
Dazzling the day
Red to grey

Places abandoned as the chaos arise
Entire bullshits are thrown away
In disguise, through the crowd
There's a foe with no face
Takes you down, fills you up
Eats you inside until you suffocate
'Til you suffocate
'Til you suffocate
Don't let it be your fate

Life torn down around it
Vanquished, cursed, carried away
By the red sunlight
Dazzling the day
Red to grey

Enemy
Misery
Destruction
Nuclear sovereignty

Life (life) torn down around it
Vanquished, cursed, carried away
By the red sunlight
Dazzling the day
Red to grey
