In this time of doing what everybody tell us
You're just another one trying to win without mercy
Your expression, your false conviction
All in you is a contradiction
But don't think I will follow your flaws
'Cause all in you is a lost cause

Every time I close my eyes
I can see some ghosts
Surrounding my head
Trying to spread all the lies
In a world that was already dead

You think you can turn lie to truth
But I will try to wash it away
Open the eyes of the lost souls
Trying to cover the haunted holes
Make them see all the badness you transmit
I'm not another hypocrite!

Every time I close my eyes
I can see some ghosts
Surrounding my head
Trying to spread all the lies
In a world that was already dead

Every time I close my eyes
I can see some ghosts
Surrounding my head
Trying to spread all the lies
In a world that was already dead
