Today I have my brain stopped
Mercy for all of the evils I've been brought Staying peaceful and calm
But still in vain
In this dying disease
Washed by rain

Forced to this
Mass murder as a kiss
You've gotta bleed all this pain
'Cause today I freeze my brain

With devil inside I can't be denied
Just guided by noise, hearing his voice
But the flame will burn and I'll return
Searching the reason why my brain is in a prison

Today I had my brain cold
Chances for all of the souls I had sold
Staying patient and faithful
But still the fear

Hold on tight
Welcome to the maze

'Cause today, I freeze my brain

With devil inside I can't be denied
Just guided by noise, hearing his voice
But the flame will burn and I'll return
Searching the reason why my brain is in a prison
