Now I'll only watch the time going by Live one day after another
Someone please tell me if there'll be tomorrow
Does it worth the pain to live in this uncertainty?

Sometimes I love this kind of livin'
With all this to give
Wish you could understand
What's this all about

Things I do are never as beautiful as the ones I dream about
But something happened to me that I didn't even think about (even think about,about)
Dreaming of it
You,

Sometimes I love this kind of livin'
With all this to give
Wish you could understand
What's this all about

Is this the price to pay? What else should I say?
Is this the price to pay? What else should I say?
Is this the price to pay? What else should I say?

Can't sleep now
Only think about
What I was
What I'm now
What I want
What I need
And it all goes back to the place it started
