Be a guy
make bottle rockets blow up in their eyes
now and then- he'll say he's crazy we don't ask him why I know- you're thinking it in You're a guy
make firecrackers
blow up in her hair
now and then- he'll say he's lazy we don't even care

(chorus)
I'll be over there
you stand here
she's got pretty hair
you stand here
on a double dare
you stand here
then they'll know
that you're grown up- when you're gone

If you're the guy
win hidden glances twinklin' in their eyes now again- he's feeling crazy let's not ask him why

(chorus)
that you're grown
that you're not a kid anymore they'll sing
all the words to all of your songs...
