Suckled at the teat of the she-wolf
I was born in the light of the gibbous moon

Fathered by vengeance and carnal lust
Unholy matrimony of blood and sperm

Wolflust

Shape shift moonlight feral scent
Spurting frothing seed rarcious dread

Terror bathing ensanguined venom flows
Parting the flesh of the daughters of men

Wolflust

Beast of raping blood
Pillaging unclean desire
Loathsome hellhound nightmare of death
Where shadows fall-beware

Twilight unscathing
Bloodbath infant rending
A spell a cry from limb from limb
Enter on all fours the witch

The hunger slaked my loins now spent
Silence entombs save for the howling of the damned

Hell has fulfilled my blackened destiny
Bestial deeds of hell paced death
