"Sub Zero"

This heart is frozen in me
Frost bitten by deceit from the unseen
A fleeting shadow of the dominance I breed
Mixes ash into the oxygen I breath

You told me this life was forever
But forever was a childhood dream
Now seen through the eyes of your masters
The glass life with a crystalline sheen

What you've built for yourself is coming down
And as you pick up the pieces
Shatter skin of the system you've sewn
Carved in a forgotten existence
Collective mind is not your own
Rediscover the forgotten volition
Essence born through unbreakable will Carnality must be unbounded
To crush this poison throne

The transparent isâ€¦
So apparent to me
Lord i must know is this psychosis or soliloquy

I walk this line in memory of soliloquy
We are fallenâ€¦
Fallen.
