(Doug Kershaw - Rusty Kershaw)

Say child, have you seen the Bourbon Street queen She's feeling it, revealing it, down in New Orleans that cajun stripper queen

Dance, dance, dance, little stripper, dance while the music's hot

Dance, dance, dance, little queenie, do give it all you've got.

She's got what it takes to drive you insane She'll show you things like you ain't never seen, that little cajun queen

So dance, dance, dance little stripper, dance while the
music's hot

Dance, dance, dance, little queenie, do give it all
you've got.

--- Instrumental ---

She doesn't undress like all of the rest She kicks off her shoes when she feels the blues, the cajun stripper blues

So dance, dance, dance little stripper, dance while the
music's hot

you've got.

If would you go down to that cajun town Tell her that I said to let her hair hang down and show you round the town

And dance, dance, dance little stripper, dance while the music's hot

Dance, dance, dance, little queenie, do give it all
you've got...
