(Carson J. Robison)

I hear the banjos ringing
Those melodies that linger in my heart
I hear the old folks singing
Those good old songs that make the teardrops start.

Oh, how I long to go back again
Back to those blue Dixie skies
Down on the old plantation
Oh, take me there and let me live and die.

--- Instrumental ---

Oh, how I long to go back again
Back to those blue Dixie skies
Down on the old plantation
Oh, take me there and let me live and die.

Oh, take me there and let me live and die...
