I'll meet you in the morning by the bright riverside
When all sorrow has drifted away
I'll be standing at the portals when the gates open wide
At the end of life's long dreary day.

I'll meet you in the morning with a how do you do
And we'll sit down by the river
And when all the rapture old acquaintance renewed
You'll know me in the morning by the smile that I wear
When I meet you in the morning
In the city that is built four square.

While the years and the ages shall roll.

I'll meet you in the morning with a how do you do
And we'll sit down by the river
And when all the rapture old acquaintance renewed
You'll know me in the morning by the smile that I wear
When I meet you in the morning
In the city that is built four square...
