(D. Hall - W. Hall)

The sweet things you say to me
Are they true or fantasy?
Is our love reality
Or is it make believe?

Is the smile that tells me so
Really meant to let me know?
That you'll never, ever go
Or is it make believe?

If you're not sure let me know
If there's any doubt tell me so.

Think it over carefully
Do you really care for me?
Will our love forever be
Or is it make believe?

If you're not sure let me know
If there's any doubt tell me so.

Think it over carefully
Do you really care for me?
Will our love forever be
Or is it make believe?...
