(Cindy Walker)

I don't know the name of your new love
You never told me but I'll tell you mine
The name of my new love, my warm love
My sweet love is ruby, ruby, ruby red wine.

I don't know the street that you live on
Oh, but they tell me the neighborhood's fine
But my streets're dead end, no neighbors
And no friends, just ruby, ruby, ruby red wine.

She makes me forget how I loved you
And the mem'ries that you left behind
She makes me forget how I need you
Ss she bubbles and sparkles and shines.

I don't know the reason you left me
You never told me but then never mind
For I have my new love, my warm love
My sweet love. it's ruby, ruby, ruby red wine...
