(Ramona Redd)

I love you so
I can't let you go
I must make you see
You mean more to me
Than each beat of my heart
For I can't live without your love.

All of my life I have dreamed of love
A way I wanted it to be
But now that I found you my heart's so afraid
That somehow you won't care for me.

I love you so
I can't let you go
I must make you see
You mean more to me
Than each beat of my heart
For I can't live without your love.

--- Instrumental ---

I offer my love and the dream to fulfill
Pledge me your love in return
Just to say that you love me and you always will
The flame will forever burn.

I love you so
I can't let you go
I must make you see
You mean more to me
Than each beat of my heart
For I can't live without your love...
