Unbelievable love, unbvelievable love
Oh my, sweet baby gives me, unbelievable love

Sometimes I wake up after midnight
Worried about the coming day
She just puts her arms around me
And gently loves my cares away.

And then I wake up in the morning
She gives me strenght to carry on
'Cause I know her love goes with me
Yes it does, now every hour that I'm gone.

Unbelievable love, unbvelievable love
Oh my, sweet baby gives me, unbelievable love.

Now when the day is finally over
One thing on my mind is home
She'll be waitin' there to give me
The sweetest love I've ever known.

Unbelievable love, unbvelievable love
Oh my, sweet baby gives me, unbelievable love.

Oh my, sweet baby gives me, unbelievable love. hmm...
