(Nat Stuckey)

Well, if you're thinkin' that maybe you can steal my baby
Let me give you some advice, just free
You better not start to roamin' round my pretty woman
Unless you wanna tangle with me.

By way you're a lookin'
I can tell you're cookin' up somethin's gonna get you
hurt
And that cash you're flashin' gonna buy you trouble
I'm gonna see you get your money's worth

Little man understand she's mine.

--- Instrumental ---

You better not take chances with anymore glances
Get the leavin' while the leavin's good I got enough of contranotion that I'd change your notion
Leave 'em up brother where you stood.

Now I don't mean maybe you keep foolin' with my baby
I'm gonna see you if I can stretch your neck
And when you need a friend instead of askin' how you been
He's gonna ask you where you had your wreck.

Little man understand she's mine.

--- Instrumental ---

By way you're a lookin'
I can tell you're cookin' up somethin's gonna get you
hurt
And that cash you're flashin' gonna buy you trouble
I'm gonna see you get your money's worth.

Now I don't mean maybe you keep foolin' with my baby

I'm gonna see you if I can stretch your neck
And when you need a friend instead of askin' how you
He's gonna ask you where you had your wreck.

Little man understand she's mine.

--- Instrumental to fade ---
