I don't know who the hell I'm saving any more
'Cause the emptiness and fear has left me crazy
Letting go of my faded smile and empty eyes
And the jealousy inside that kept me jaded

I miss the way it used to be
When everything was beautiful
And you were there and I was sure
I miss the way it used to be
When everything was possible
Now all that was is dead and gone

My reflection tells me all I need to know
And my grip is surely slipping from what is real
This reflection has been there from the start
Now the darkness comes
Looking for a soul to steal

I miss the way it used to be
When everything was beautiful
And you were there and I was sure
I miss the way it used to be
When everything was possible
Now all that was is dead and gone

Will you miss me when I'm gone?
When all that's left are the memories
And the way it could have been
And the way it used to be

I miss the way it used to be
When everything was beautiful
And you were there and I was sure
I miss the way it used to be
When everything was possible
Now all that was is dead and gone

I miss the way it used to be
When everything was beautiful
And you were there and I was sure
I miss the way it used to be

I miss the way it used to be
When everything was beautiful
Now all that was is dead and gone
