I've been told to bite my tongue
Not to say that you're the one
That has changed my life for good
But I can't keep this in my heart
I've been dealt the highest cards
I wouldn't change 'em if I could

I'm falling through the door
Flying across the floor
You take me on a wild ride

(So I'm telling you)
On and on until the end
I'll follow you around the bend
Believe me when I say it's true
There's nobody else like you
On and on and from the start
You're love's been lighting up the dark
Like nothing that I ever knew
There's nobody else like you

So now it's time to spell it out
Tell the world what I'm about
I've been waiting for too long
I'm a moth and you're a flame
So tell me you feel the same
And I now I can't go wrong

I've been searching high and low
Been to places noone goes
And one day I finally see the biggest treasure
Standing right in front of me
