So strange when lovers change their mind
To realize the joy left foolishly behind
I feel secure down in my soul
*(somehow I know)
I know that love is on my side
(deep down I know)
I know that love is on my side
I'm gonna win, yeah*

Some nights I slip into the past
To better understand why two hearts never last
I just don't know why nights so tender turn so cold

( * repeat)

Walk on, through the night
It's all just a game she plays so well
In time, I know the tide will be turnin
And she's gonna learn
Shine a light, shine it bright
And time, will testify I know

I know that (repeat)
