"Silver Girl"

Silver girl, stay until tomorrow
Take my heart away with just a single kiss,
Silver girl, the world out side our window,
Somehow fades away at moments like this,
While tonight in the city street the people rush by,
You and I are taking our time, precious time,

*won't you lay with me (stay with me) one moment more,
I couldn't bear to see you walk out that door,
Stay with me, by my one in the world,
For just one golden moment, my silver girl.*

The silver moon holds us in it's power,
With a magic that I'm not prepared to fight,
With all my strength I've been holding back the hour,
Lie beside me now if just for one night,
Far below, in the city street the people rush by,
You and I are taking our time, precious time.
