[Intro]

I know that your afraid,
(I can see it in your eyes).
You wear you heart to sleep,
(i hate to say goodnight).

Move now (that) things (are) changing,
Face (facts) i'll (still) be (making)
Just gonna wait for a while

[chorus]

I came out to find you,
you were gone,
And all of those questions make this song.
I came out to find you,
you were gone,
And all of those questions make this song.

[verse]

tears of innocence,
(you played the guilty part).
Victims of circumstance
(a puncture to my heart)

Move now (that) things (are) changing,
Face (facts) i'll (still) be (making)
Just gonna wait for a while

[chorus]

I came out to find you,
you were gone,
And all of those questions make this song.
I came out to find you,
you were gone,
And all of those questions make this song.

[interlude]

Now they say, that absence,
makes the heart, grow fonder.
Now im back, and you've changed,
and your life is so strange.
And now after, can you, look in my eyes and tell me, honestly
(i'll head back to the only life i know)
that you are the true to play with my world, (i'll head back to the only life i.....
And i say absence makes the heart grow fonder

KNOWWWWWW

(i'll head back to the only life i know)
(i'll head back to the only life i know)

I came out to find you, you were gone,
And all of those questions make this song.

I came back to find you, you were gone,
And all of those questions make this song!
