It felt so easy in the morning sun
When love was in season, I was on the run
I was lookin' for trouble and the thrill of the chase
Love was lookin' at me eye to eye, face to face

One touch should've told me, try and understand
Love was always a long shot to a gambling man
With a roll of the dice, girl, I threw it away
Now I'm thinkin' 'bout you day and night, night and day

Didn't know it was love, didn't know it was fate
Didn't know it was destiny callin', tell me, it's never too late
Was I too blind to see when push came to shove?
You were all that I needed, didn't know it was love

Wasn't blind to the magic, you think I'm so tough
Turning my back on the thunder, I just ain't good enough
I keep trying to shake you, there just ain't no way
Now I'm thinkin' 'bout you day and night, night and day

Didn't know it was love, didn't know it was fate
Didn't know it was destiny callin', tell me, it's never too late
Was I too blind to see when push came to shove?
You were all that I needed, didn't know it was love

Those crazy nights on the borderline
Did my best to cut myself free
Stood alone, just a prisoner
Never knew you were holdin' the key, oh

I was lookin' for trouble and the thrill of the chase
Love was lookin' at me eye to eye, face to face

Didn't know it was love, didn't know it was fate
Didn't know it was destiny callin', tell me, it's never too late
Was I too blind to see when push came to shove?
You were all that I needed, didn't know it was love

Didn't know it was love
Didn't know it was fate
Didn't know it was love
