Here for now but I'm running out of town
And it's all because of you
And now I've found
I'm holding out on you because I can

Why'd you shut the dorr
I'm here and I'm up in arms
I can't deny I can't complain
I can't believe it's happening

Here for now but I'm running out of town
And it's all because of you
And now I've found
I'm holding out on you beacause I can (YEAH)

Why'd I let you in
I knew you'd do this again
I can't deny that I've complained
I knew that this was happening

Here for now but I'm runnning out of town
And it's all because of you
And now I've found
I'm holding out on you because I can

I'm sick of your questions
They're bothering me
It's less than I'll give you but more than you'll need
No words for today
No hope for tomorrow
So this is the end of the world
Can you see it so clear
Can you see it so clear

Here for now but I'm running out of town
And it's all because of you
And now I found
I'm holding out on you because I can
