10. Tin GoDS
SUSAN AGLUKARK, BEN MINK

Riding wings of memory
I'm like a fly on the wall
What is it that I am looking for?
I see a flurry of delusion
Thick like October fog
I am just a messenger for the coming caterwaul

Kisi Manitou (Geeseh mantou)
Cover me and give me strength to rise above the fall
Kisi Manitou (Geeseh mantou)
I am just a messenger for hireling tin gods

So I dive into the deluge
Get swallowed by the mire
Something deep inside begins to rise
Breaking through the barrier
A shroud of alibis
I will be your gold dust and lift you from the mire

Kisi Manitou (Geeseh mantou)
Cover me and give me strength to rise above the fall
Kisi Manitou (Geeseh mantou)
I am just a messenger for hireling tin gods

Da, da, da, da, da, da, da, da, da, da, da, aah
Da, da, da, da, da, da, da, da, da, da, da, aah

Seeping in the backwash the aftermath of life
October's fog is lifting I'm drawn into the light

Kisi Manitou (Geeseh mantou)
Cover me and give me strength to rise above the fall
Kisi Manitou (Geeseh mantou)
I am just a messenger for hireling tin gods
