There's been a whole lot of rain comin' down around me lately
In fact it's more like a hurricane
And I've been lettin' it shake me
I've been turnin' and tossin' my sleep all away.

But wait one minute
Where's my faith been lately?

Oh me, oh me of little faith
God never ever went away
Ain't no amount of worry gonna make things change
Oh me, oh me of little faith.

Got no reason in the world to doubt
God will take care of me
In fact He's proven time and time again
How much he loves me.

I'm not talkin' 'bout maybe
And I don't mean He might
So why do I worry
Forget sometimes He's with me.

Oh me, oh me of little faith
God never ever went away
Ain't no amount of worry gonna make things change
Oh me, oh me of little faith.

If a little bit of faith is all it raelly takes I'll be alright, for heaven's sake.

Oh me, oh me of little faith
God never ever went away
Ain't no amount of worry gonna make things change
Oh me, oh me of little faith...
