

Duskfall, The "Trust Is Overrated"

Visit "Trust Is Overrated" on MotoLyrics.com

I embody this defective lifestyle and I endanger everything, I praise the horns within.

I'll flush my soul down the drain
and I'll use you and throw you down a hole.
As hell is my witness, I have sold my soul.

Label me
Label me
Label me into what you want.

I hate everything around me, trust is overrated.
And I contaminate those feelings, you'll die without me leaving.

I loathe you, won't pull you through
I loathe you, you're cancer in my room.

Label me
Label me
Label me into what you want.

I loathe you, won't pull you through
I loathe you, this cancer in my room.
