"You Can"

You can have, you can do, you can be,
Anything you wanna be,
But remember where you come from,
And remember what you need,

Some people like to have a bowl,
They wanna show they got it all,
Some people throw it in your face,
Just to tell you what they got,
By what they have to waste,
Do you get off from being shalow,
Where's the fun in that?

You can have, you can do, you can be,
Anything you wanna be,
But remember where you come from,
And remember what you need,
You can dream constainly,
But is that who you wanna be?
Cause baby what you have now,
Isn't really what you need,

Some people need to shout and scream,
They only do this when they're rolling in the green,

But it's hard to swallow baby, when you're heading for a fall

Do you get off from being shallow,
Where's the fun in that?

You can have, you can do, you can be,
Anything you wanna be,
But remember where you come from,
And remember what you need,
You can dream constainly,
But is that who you wanna be?
Cause baby what you have now,
Isn't really what you need,

I should've cared and paid attention,
It's not my fault, word mean nothing,

You can sense for affection for yourself,
It's what you really need, oh yeah,

You can have, you can do, you can be,
Anything you wanna be,
Yeah,
You can have, you can do, you can be,
Anything you wanna be,
But remember where you come from,
And remember what you need,
You can dream constantly,
But is that who you wanna be?
Cause baby what you have now,
Isn't really what you need,
You can have, you can do, you can be,
Anything you wanna be (wooh)
