I feel dirty and you say you feel used
So what are you cryin' for What have you got to prove
I hate you when you act that way
Self-righteous all the way
I hate you when you act that way
Damn you and your self-righteous ways
Smooth out the edges
Tryin' to soothe your wrinkled brow
Then you numb yourself 'til you can't think, feel or speak, babe
You didn't think I'd figure it out
Well, somehow I did
I hate you when you act that way
Self-righteous all the way
I hate you when you act that way
Damn you and your self-righteous ways
