Who's gonna love you after I've gone away Who's gonna kiss the lips that I kissed today Who's gonna hold you when you're old and gray oh don't let true love slip away For once in a lifetime true love comes along so handle it gently don't let it go wrong Treat it with kindness or soon it will fade if you let true love slip away [ac.guitar]
For true love is something that money can't buy
So don't take it lightly true love's a stuff of life You'll travel forever down life's lost highway if you let true love slip away
So don't let true love slip away
