If you cry for me I will cry for you
We can laugh while the rainbows Bloom in the moonlight Then it shines for me like it shines for you hold my hand baby - pull me through
In the eyes of love - In the heart of pain
In the skies above - In the pourin' rain
If you believe in me - I will believe in you We can live under the mustard tree, baby we can make the mountains move if you'll fall on me, I will fall on you we can follow the train tracks that are silvery blue
In the eyes of love - In the heart of pain
In the skies above - In the pourin' rain
When the darkness falls and you're all alone
Reach for me baby, I will take you home If there's a heaven for you then there's a heaven for me I'll crawl straight through hell baby on my hands and knees
Just to be with you...would you be with me Heaven ain't heaven unless we believe
In the eyes of love, in the heart of pain
In the skies above, in the pourin' rain
When the darkness falls and you're all alone
why don't you just reach for me baby, and I will take you home
