( I wonder if I care as much.
As I did before)

Last night I cried myself to sleep,
For the one that makes me weep.
I dried my eyes to greet the day
And wondered why I had to pay.
The tears that I have shed by day,
Give relief and wash away.
The memory of the night before,
I wonder if I'll suffer more.

( I wonder.....)

My pride is made to say "forgive"
And take the blame for what you did.
It is your mistake I'm thinking of.
I wonder if I'm still in love.
My heart can't thrive on misery.
My life, it has no destiny.
When things get more than I can bear
I ask myself "do I still care?"

( I wonder.....)

(to fade)
