The warden led a prisoner down the hallway to his doom

I stood up to say goodbye like all the rest

& I heard him tell the warden just before he reached my cell

"Let my guitar-playin' friend do my request"

"Let him sing me back home, a song I used to hear

Make my old mem'ries come to life

Take me away & turn back the years

Sing me back home before I die"

I recall a Sunday morning a choir from on the street

Came in to sing a few old gospel songs

& I heard him tell the singer "There's a song my mama sang

Could I hear it once before you move along?"

"Won't you sing me back home, a song I used to hear

Make my old mem'ries down to lie

Take me away & turn back the years

Sing me back home before I die
