Back to back here we stand our guns they are ready and loaded ten steps forward and then turn the strike of the bullets will hurt you Eye to eye with icecold looks that make you feel there is danger they have might to hypnotize and they will never release you

You search for the stronger you search for the truth you're searching so long wasting your youth

Fight it out
if you search for the stronger fight it out if you search for the truth fight it out if you search for the stronger fight it out if you search Search for the stronger of two Keep cool bleed and fight your fear Success's laying only in your hands just try hard the end is near your name will be sung through the lands

You search for the stronger etc ...

Fight it out
etc ...
