Starlight shines in another world
Spent my life in a dark dismay
It starts with you for what it's worth Can't speak your name, or I go insane
In another world - back to my soul
I know there's nothing here Seems I'm back in a loveless world Can't understand what it's worth Step outside the lifeless game
I've never understood what it says
In the fucking world blacks out my soul
I know there's nothing real - okay
There's nobody else who gives this to me
'Cause whoever said my soul would heal

There's no one who shares in my whole misery For who will say my soul is real
I step outside this fucking cage
New forms of life cry out and rage I feel flying back the loveless fear to check and see my soul is real repeat bridge one repeat chorus one
repeat bridge one
repeat chorus one repeat chorus two
There's no one who shares in this whole mystery
'Cause whoever said my soul was real I laugh out but now of the whole misery
'Cause who will save my soul, it's real
