Sally's saying it's not a feeling she's got nothing and still got everything to lose and, She's only healing, she's tired of fearing she's still got thin,
thin and thinner to go and,
She's disappearing, she's disappearing what's living forever i f your all on your own? And She's only stealing, she's only stealing all of the things she had stolen from her and...

You've got a terrible temper, I don't wanna hear you say Anything - oh -
You've got a terrible temper, I don't wanna hear you say anything...

They go, they go, they go no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no.
They go, they go, they go,
Your Days don't slow down, your days don't slow down...

"Did you see them chase us away?" Or So Sally says
"Did you see them chase us away?" Or so Sally says
