Walking through the streets
Waiting for a call
It's 10th and 24th and I'm in luck
Luck is all I need
When I shake his hands
I go back to the house and fix it up

Are you happy now
Can you breathe again
Did you toss away your demons and lighten up
Did you close your eyes, did you see her face
Did you walk along that beach I've been dreaming of

Emma Hartley I can feel your touch
Emma Hartley don't you leave
Emma Hartley I can't get enough
Emma Hartley stay I plead

You walk in that door
Say you're looking for
The things we never got to say
You say there's a problem here
I'm staring at you dear
You been sitting there running off those trains

And are you happy now
Can you breathe again
Did you toss away your demons and lighten up
Did you close your eyes
Did you see my face
Did you walk along that beach you've been dreaming of

Emma Hartley I can feel your touch
Emma Hartley don't you leave
Emma Hartley I can't get enough
Emma Hartley stay I plead
